

After trudging around the city the day before, we should this day relax a little and attend Military Tattoo in the evening. We had booked tickets online and got tickets along with this letter in the mail.

THE ROYAL
EDINBURGH
MILITARY TATTOO

Mr Kjell Marthon Roaldsoy
Linlykkja 40
2750 Gran
NORWAY

Dear Mr Roaldsoy

Thank you for choosing The Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo.

Patron: HRH The Princess Royal

32 Market Street,
Edinburgh EH1 1QB

Tel: +44 (0)131 225 4783

Fax: +44 (0)131 225 8627

administration@edintattoo.co.uk

www.edintattoo.co.uk

We are delighted that you will be joining us for the Stewart Package on Tuesday 14 August 2012. Your itinerary for the evening is shown below.

Please present this letter, together with your Tattoo tickets for the Premier Seating area for that evening's performance, to the security staff in attendance at the barrier at Castlehill to gain access to the Castle Esplanade (see map overleaf).

- 6.15pm Assemble on the Castle Esplanade at the Tattoo Customer Information Kiosk where you will be welcomed by a Tattoo representative. You will then be escorted, on foot, to the Jacobite Room within Edinburgh Castle where welcome drinks will be served.
- 6.55pm Dinner is called followed by a short "Welcome to the Tattoo" presentation. (Please advise us, in advance, of any special dietary requirements)
- 8.15pm Guests will be joined by select members of the Tattoo cast for a short performance.
- 8.30pm You will be escorted, on foot, from the Jacobite Room down through the Castle drawbridge and across the Castle Esplanade to take your premier seats ahead of the Tattoo performance which commences at 9.00pm. Guests must be seated 15 minutes before the start of the performance.

Please note that access to and from the Jacobite Room includes steep inclines and uneven surfaces and is not suitable for those with mobility difficulties. Guests should note also that all Premier Package seats are in the open air grandstand so please dress accordingly.

Please do not hesitate to contact us should you have any queries (0044 131 225 1188 or email tickets@edintattoo.co.uk).

We look forward to welcoming you.

Brigadier David Allfrey MBE
Chief Executive and Producer

512031

Arriving at The Jacobite Room for dinner before the show. The hall begins to fill up.

When dinner is to be served, we were sent in groups for dinner serving.

Orderly queue.

There is various dishes to chose from.

Kjell chose this.

Mmm.. This should taste.

So good!

Afterward there is dessert.

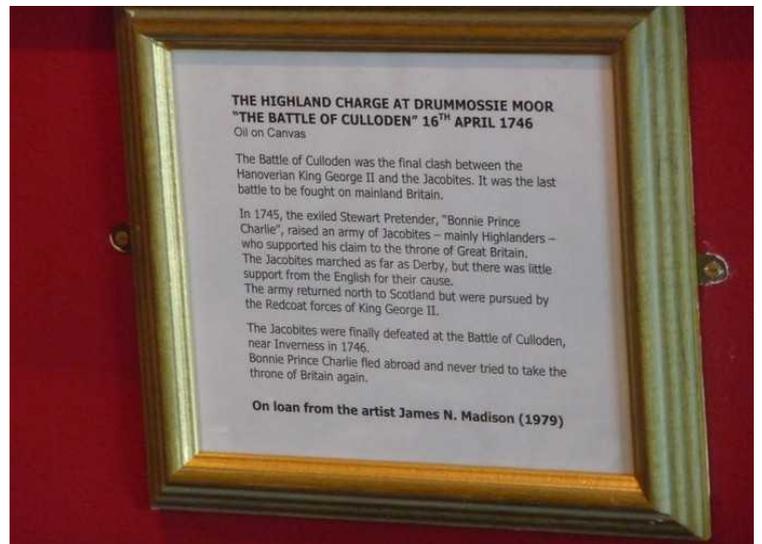

This guy should be a bit careful of what he eats.

In between we are looking at the view of Edinburgh.

On the wall is a picture from the Battle of Culloden.

Under the picture is the text explaining the picture and what the battle was about.

Here are a few musicians warming up outside the window where we are sitting.

During the break, we go outside.

Here are more musicians warming up before the show.

The table is used as drums.

Smiling girls.

Bagpipes and kilts in the evening sun.

Everybody is welcomed to «The Tattoo».

These give a taste of the upcoming show.

Here are two functionaries, who will guide us down to the tribunes.

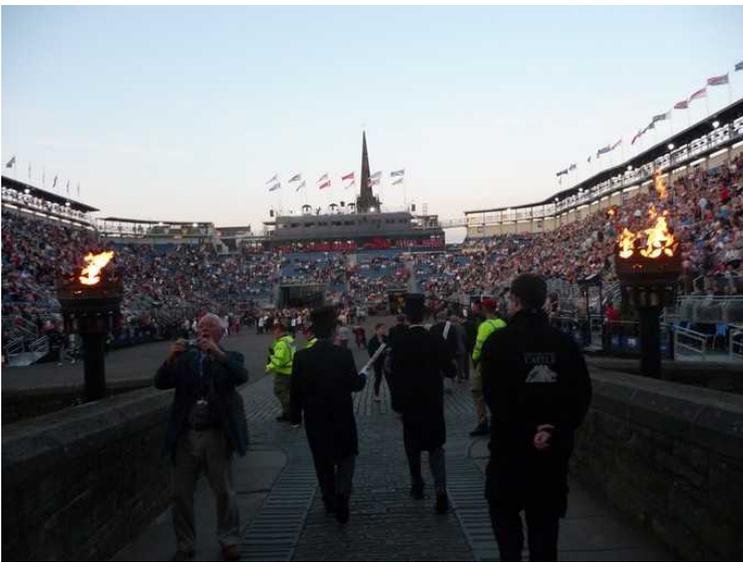

Those who are going to participate are ready.

Here we go.

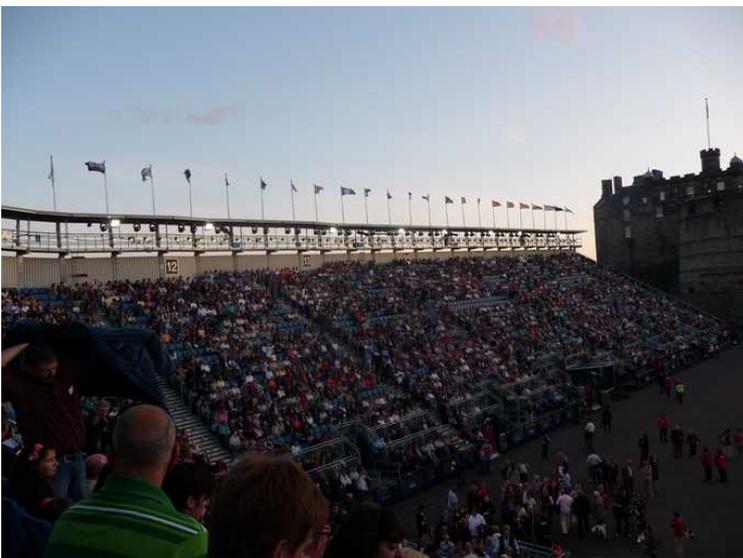

Almost there.

Coming out on the esplanade where the show will be.

The sun is about to go down.

The tribunes are filling up.

Below are a series of pictures from the show.

At the end a few videos from the show:

Video 1 – Video 2 – Video 3 – Video 4 – Video 5 – Video 6 – Video 7 – Video 8 – Video 9 – Video 10
Video 11 – Video 12 – Video 13 – Video 14 – Video 15 – Video 16 – Video 17 – Video 18 – Video 19 – Video 20