

GRUETUNET SUNDAY THE 19TH OF AUGUST

We saw this ad in Glåmdalen and decided to take a trip there.

Åpen dag på Gruetunet

Søndag 19. august kl.11:00

Gruetunet, Kirkenær

Kirkenær, Grue Åpne kart

Gruetunet har åpen dag søndag 19.august. Her vil Bygdekvinnen, Grue Bygdeungdomslag, GUMF,Speiderne, Husfliden og mange andre frivillige sørge for at store og små får en flott dag

Rapportér

Legg til kalenderen din

Translation: Gruetunet has an "open day" Sunday 19. August. Here farmers wives, Grue Rural Youths, GUMF (Glåmdal Equipment and Motor History Association), the scouts, handicraft and many other voluntary will ensure that everybody will have a great day.

Gruetunet is a part of Museum for Forest Finn Culture in Norway. Gruetunet Museum was established in 1942. The open air museum at Forkerudstjennet (Forkerud lake) east of Kirkenær consists of 25 buildings that show farm, a tenant farmer's place and shieling in Solør from the period 1750-1900. In addition, the museum is responsible for another 80 buildings in the area.

Gruetunet lies at Forkerudtjennet, east of the center of Kirkenær.

We had to park at some distance from the entrance. Here we are approaching.

I pay the entrance fee, 100 Norwegian krone per person.

This is a bust of the founder of Gruetunet, Nils Iversen.

There were a lot of people in the area.

Farmen 2018 has marketplace here. Farmen 2018 is recorded at Gjedtjernet farm in Grue. The house to the left is a house from approx. 1800 with gallery. It is protected.

Those who worked here had contemporary old outfits.

A mobile threshing machine.

The threshing machine.

The man in black dress and hat is the founder of Gruetunet, Nils Iversen.

There were play equipment for the kids.

The horse went all day
It was a popular activity.

We met Birger Nesholen, a professional advisor at the museum.

There was an old car here.

Old harrows and ploughs.

The horse was alking all the time.

A sign that shows the way to the tenants place and to the shieling.

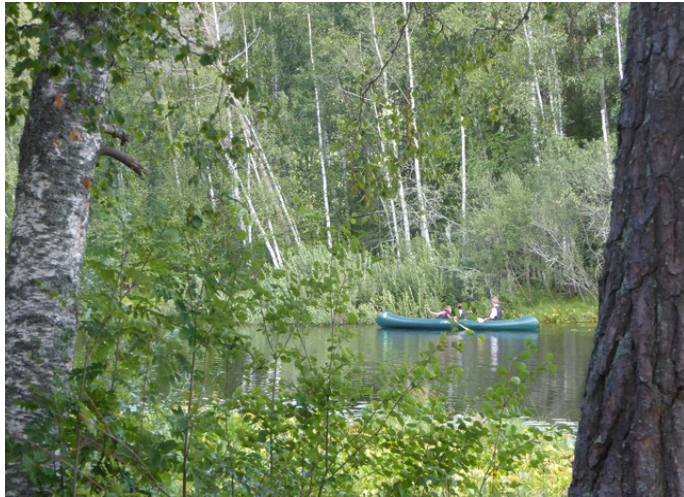

Scouts.

The road to the tenant's place.

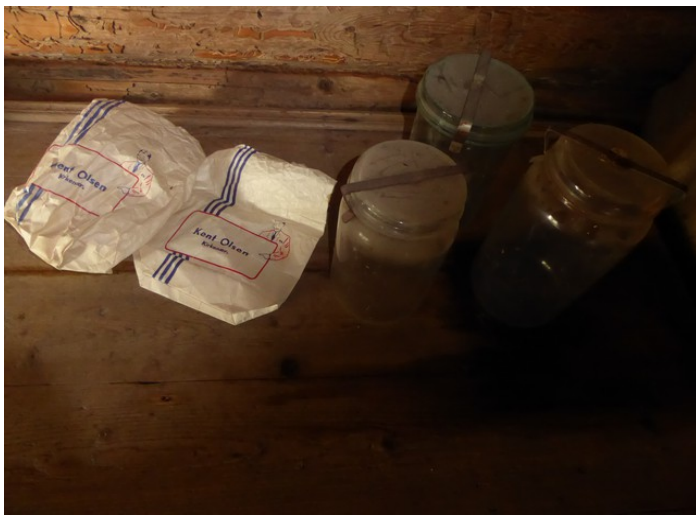

Carding of wool.

Pictures inside of the house.

Local flour bags, Kent Olsen, Kirkenær.

Three Billy Goats Gruff.

The shieling.

I had to have a look at the car.

It was a Humber.

It is from about 1910.

Barn.

Then it was time for coffee, waffles and jam.

Roy Hytjan wa here too.

Just before we should go, the aunt of Anne Berit, Ingrid Sletten, also arrived.