

CRETE 27. JULY – 3. AUGUST 2016

We found out that we would have a week in hot summer weather. We were in Crete in winter 2014 - 2015. Then we stayed a place called Almyrida. We enjoyed ourselves so well there that we decided to go there again, so we booked a hotel there and booked flights to Chania. We ordered tickets at Norwegian. Since they traveled early in the morning, we found out that we would stay at the Radisson Blu Airport Hotel, Oslo Gardermoen during the night. It is located at the airport, so it's a short way to go there to check in at the airport. We drove to the airport and parked in the airport parking lot. It was the area P4 this time.

Here I am in the room at the hotel.

Checking the laptop.

We had booked at Almyrida Rooms. They arranged taxi from the airport to Almyrida, so when we came out of the arrival hall, taxi driver was waiting for us.

This is the view from the balcony of the hotel.
