

On Wednesday the 30th of September we are in Selemet. After we've visited the kindergarten we are moving on.

First we are putting flowers by a statue.

It is a statue of one of the first Dacian kings, Burebista, who reigned from 82 to 44 BCE.

Then a flower-laying ceremony at the monument to those from Selemet who were deported to Siberia and Kazakhstan under Stalin's reign.

Then a visit to the police station.

Anne Berit is with the police.

I am too.

Here we are at the village hall.

At first some music and singing. Video 1 Video 2

Then a lot of food.

While we are eating there is a dance show.

Then more singing.

Flute playing. Video

More singing.

There is also food for those who work at the kindergarten.

The choir.

The dancers.

Here the mayor is participating in the dance ring.

The Moldovan brandy that was served.

The interpreter and the driver.

More speeches.

Three orphans are invited.

More music. Video

Eventually there will be dancing in which everyone can participate. We also joined eventually.
It was quite late before we got back to our hotel.
