

THE COAST PILEGRIMAGE ROUTE (KYSTPILEGRIMSLEIA) 23. JULY – 3. AUGUST 2021

Then we have come to the last two driving days on this pilgrimage. We have had 9 nights along the way: Tvedestrand, Bryne, Husnes, Lindås, Florø, Fosnavåg, Kristiansund, Sistranda and Brekstad. This day we will drive via Trondheim to Oppdal.

The next day, August 2, we drove in the direction of Trondheim. A political statement along the way.

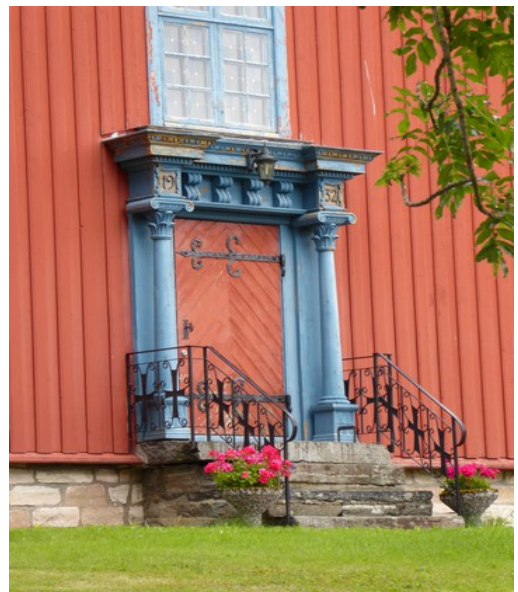

We stopped at Rissa. It was raining, so we first drove to the memorial for Rissa landslide.

Plaque on the stone.

Afterwards we drove back to Rein church. It's from 1932.

We see Rein's monastery up the hill, originally Rein's royal estate from 1070. The monastery was built around 1230. Today there are only ruins left of the monastery. (Pilgrimsleden)

View over the Trondheimsfjord with cows in the foreground.

Here we have come to Rørvika and will take the ferry across the Trondheimsfjord to Flakk. This section is operated by MF Trondheim, MF Munken and MF Lagatun.

The only stop this day was at the Cathedral in Trondheim. The church was started around 1070. It has been exposed to a number of major fires and restorations. (Pilgrimsleden)

Flowers in the park around the church.

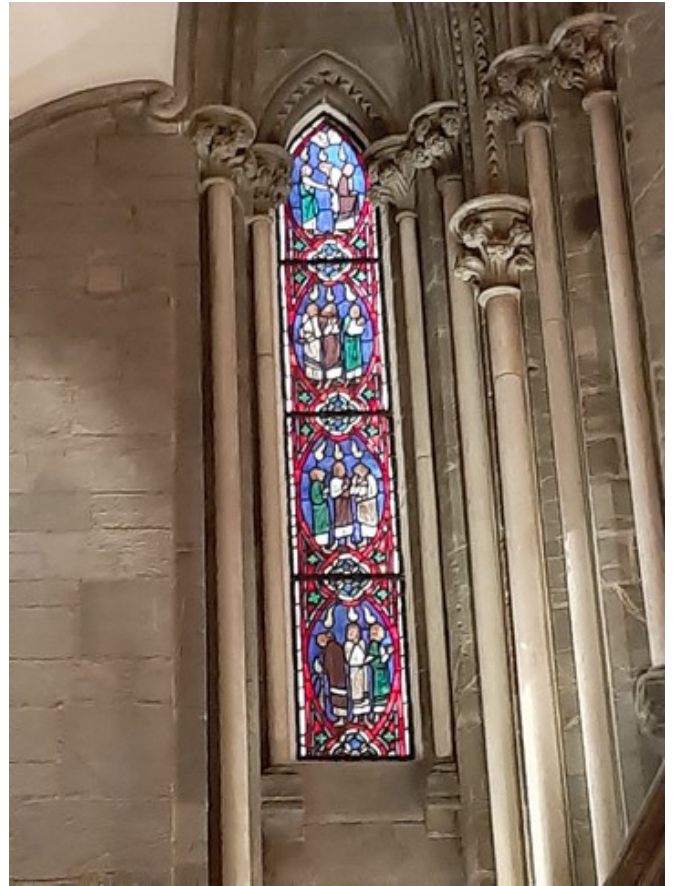

This statue stands at the entrance to the church area. It is in memory of victims of the last world war.

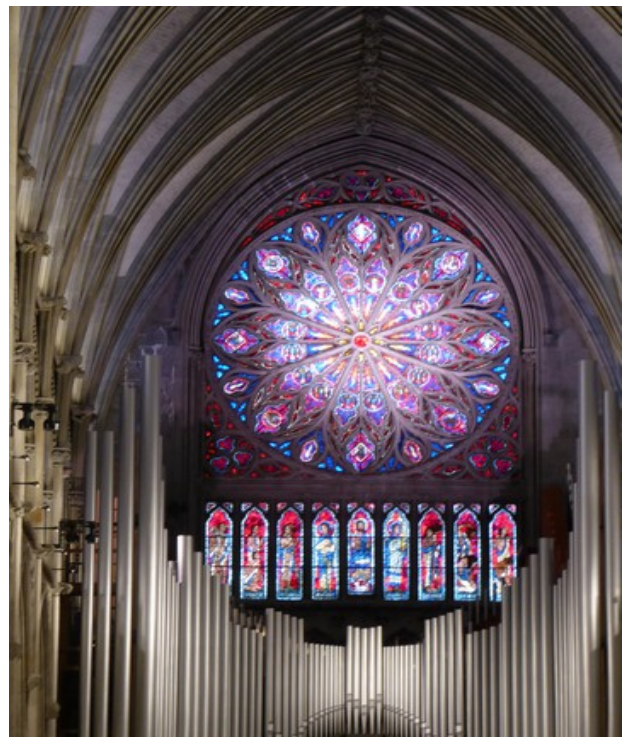

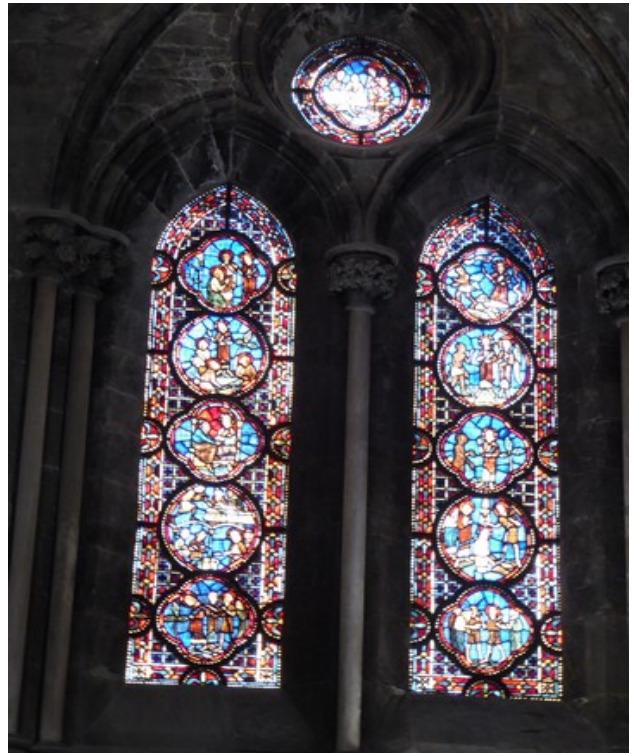

Then we are inside the church. Here we took a lot of pictures.

Nidaros Cathedral is Norway's most central church in power to be Saint Olaf's grave church. It is today a Lutheran cathedral and parish church and is considered Norway's national shrine

From Trondheim we drove directly to Oppdal where we were going to stay at Quality Hotel Skifer.

The room looked like this.

The restaurant.

For dinner we had klippfisk with pea puree and mashed potatoes.

This is broadly the route we drove.
