

TRIP TO SANDNES 8. AND 9. OCTOBER 2011

We traveled with Norwegian from Oslo Airport, Gardermoen to Stavanger Airport, Sola. We parked the car at Dalen Parkering. This was the last trip this year, so we had Christmas presents with us.

We rented a Ford C-Max at Europcar. They have an office at the airport.

It was raining when we went from the airport.

We first visited Kjell's mother. There also Tor Jan, Kjell's cousin. Jan Inge is sitting at great-grandmother's lap.

Stian, Ingunn and Tor Joakim.

Later we had dinner at Gamlaværket in Sandnes together with Kjell's mother and Stian.

Here we have just had Missis Trones' fish soup. Very good. There was good food and good service. Anne Berit had chicken and we had steak. Strawberries and ice cream as dessert.

This is the front of one of the buildings belonging to the hotel.

The hotel lies centrally in Sandnes, right besides the railway station.

This is the entrance area. The hotel has traditions right back to 1872 when Christian VII in 1782 signed the permit to establish Sandnes Teglverk (Gamlaværket).

This part is towards the pedestrian street.

One of the dining rooms.

Reception and bar.

Here we are visiting Øystein's, who recently has moved into a new flat.

Øystein is showing pictures from a trip to Dublin that he had been on.

Here we are entering our room at the hotel.

All the rooms are individually furnished, but they have all objects from old times.

Old fashioned type of sink.

Books and rules + old shoes

The wallpapers were hand painted.

A box with cones to light the stoves. It is not in use any more. ☺ There are quite modern heating in the rooms.
