

THAILAND, PATTAYA / JOMTIEN FROM AUTUMN 2010 UNTIL SPRING 2011

There is a beach below where we stay. We went down there one day to see how it looked like there.

Along the road we pass by a combined stop and service station for bicycles and motorbikes. They are also selling gasoline on bottles.

We are also passing a restaurant.

Just before arriving to the beach there are some sales wagons.

Stairs down to the beach.

There are walkways along the beach.

There are nice plantings.

Kjell on the beach walkway.

There are various booths along the beach promenade.

There are some nice hotels along the beach.

This entrance we thought was especially nice.

Here is a big apartment hotel.

More sales booths.

In here is a big amusement park.

A high hotel with a restaurant at the top. There is also an aerial cable-way.

Kjell is looking at the carriages on the cable-way.

Some of the amusement park.

Here one of the carriages has come down again and is ready to take on board passengers.

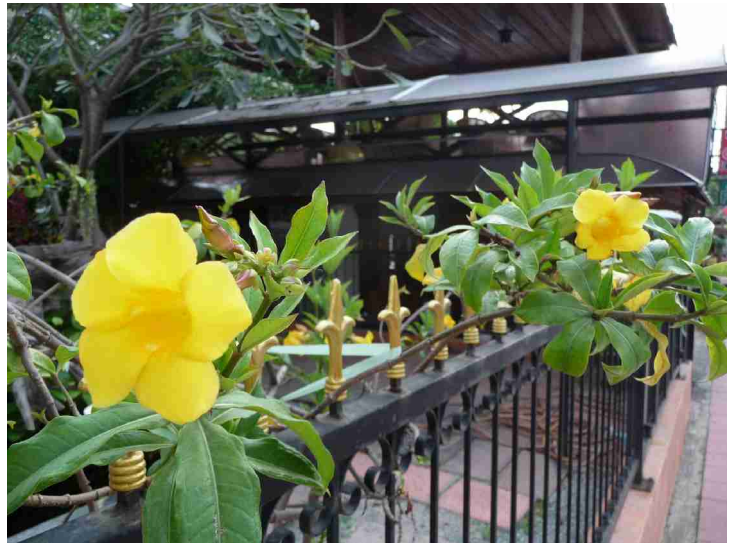

Here is a bunch sitting and playing some sort of card game.

A young pigeon bird.

Below follows some pictures of the flowering along the beach promenade.

A small coco palm.

Here we have reached the centre of Jomtien. It is just as densely built-up area here as in Pattaya and the traffic is just as heavy.

The built-up area continues for many kilometers.

And so does also the beach.

She is selling puppies with nodding heads.

A sign showing to Hotel Danmark.

Here we are having a refreshment.

Ashtray outside.

Along the street there was canoe planted with a lot of orchids.

Later we took a taxi back to the hotel, but the taxi driver took a wrong turn. He was far into Pattaya. Here he is asking for the right direction.

North of New Nordic are more beaches.
