

SWEDEN 1. JULY – 6. JULY 2016

We had so many trips abroad this year, that we had not have chance to use our mobile home. Therefore, we decided that we would take a trip to Sweden these days. We had found a campsite at Göta Canal, that we would try. The campsite is called Jonsboda Café & Camping.

The driving route to get there looked like this.

Here we are in place by the canal.

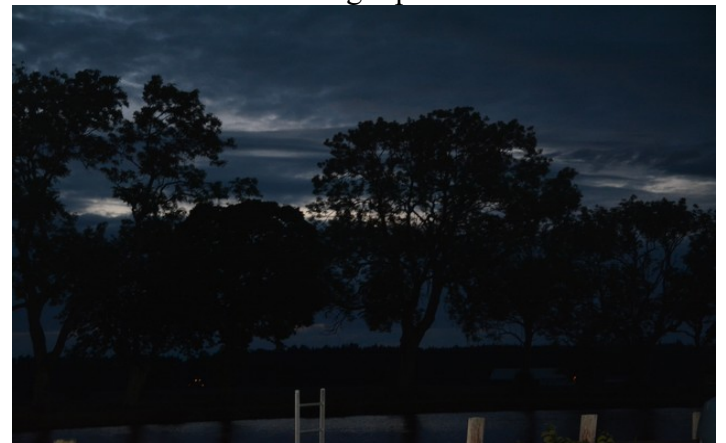

There are a few more campers here.

There is a barbecue area here.

Some night photos.

One day it rained, there was a kayak course.

Some big boats.

This is Juno, which runs in passenger traffic.

Smaller boats.

Birds.

Cooking.

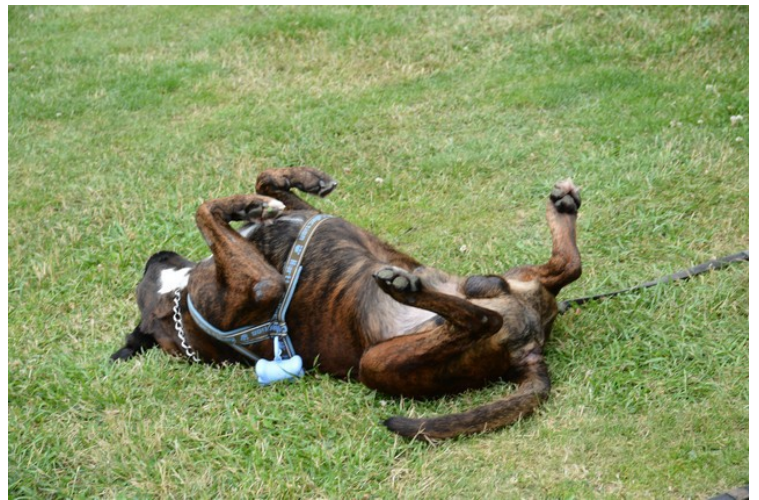

Onions, tomatoes and beef.

More evening photos.

One day we were visited by Lars Wahlmark and Paul Gäfvert. Here are I am and Paul.

Paul had his dog with him.

I and Lars.

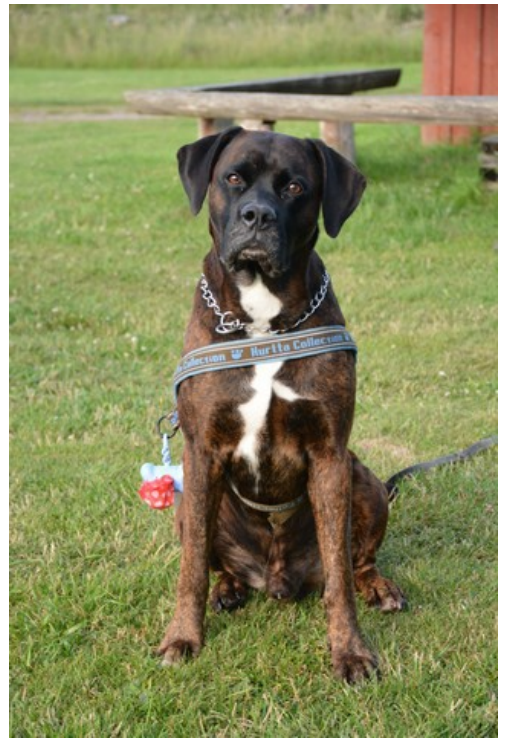

Lars.

Paul.

Before they left we had to have a group photo.

When we returned home, we made a small detour to visit Lars. He bought us lunch at the cafe. Afterwards we got ice cream and coffee at his home. Lars had made the ice himself, coffee ice cream. Yummy.

Ornaments on one windscreens. Metallic Rose. This is a rosebud.

Here is the rose sprung.

Ice cream and coffe.
